THE GAME (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1990
(Bill No. 16 of 1990)

(To be presented by the Minister for Natural Resources)

MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of this Bill is to amend the Game Act, 1953 as follows:

(a) to re-define certain expressions used in the Act and to add new definitions;
(b) to enable the Minister for Natural Resources designate by notice defined areas in Swaziland in which common game will be protected, and also to declare specified areas in Swaziland as sanctuaries for the protection of specified animals and birds;
(c) to prohibit the hunting of any animal or bird within a sanctuary or the taking of trophy of such animal or bird, and also to prohibit camping within a sanctuary without permit from a game ranger;
(d) to prescribe severe punishments for illegal hunting of specially protected game or royal game or any other game as well as for illegal possession of a trophy of such game or illegal dealing in the raw product of any specially protected game;
(e) to enable the Minister for Natural Resources grant licence for hunting common game during the open season;
(f) to prohibit the unlawful importation or exportation of any trophy or raw product of specially protected game or royal game and to prescribe severe punishments for such offences;
(g) to provide for the confiscation and disposal of any arms ammunition vehicle, vessel or aircraft used in connection with the commission of any offence under the Act and also to create the offence of aiding and abetting;
(h) to permit landowners, lessees or managers of any land in Swaziland or persons lawfully resident on land in a Swazi area to hunt, except during the closed season, any common game or to permit any game farmer to hunt or allow others to hunt game on his game farm;
(i) to provide for the appointment by the Minister for Natural Resources of game rangers and for their powers including the power to search without warrant on reasonable suspicion that an offence against the Act has been or is being committed;
(j) to provide for the offer of reward to informants;
(k) to preclude the court from passing suspended sentences on convicted offenders;
(l) to provide for the appointment by the Minister a committee to monitor the administration and enforcement of the Act and to advise him from time to time;

(m) to provide for certain incidental matters.

A.F.M. THWALA
Attorney—General
A BILL

entitled

Replacement of section 4.

3. Section 4 of the principal Act is hereby replaced with the following:

"Temporary protection of game.

4. The Minister may from time to time by Notice in the Gazette define areas in Swaziland within which any common game specified in such Notice shall be protected for such period as may be specified in such Notice, and may in like manner vary or revoke such Notice."

Replacement of section 6.

4. Section 6 of the principal Act is hereby replaced with the following:

"Sanctuaries

6. (1) The Minister may by Notice in the Gazette declare any specified area of Swaziland to be a sanctuary for the protection of any animals or birds specified in such Notice, whether or not such animals or birds are included in the First, Second or Third Schedules to this Act, and may in like manner vary the animals or birds to which the protection of the sanctuary shall apply, or extend or restrict the limits of or abolish any such sanctuary:

Provided that where the Minister does not specify in such Notice the animals or birds to which the protection of the sanctuary shall apply, the sanctuary so declared shall be deemed to have been declared for the protection of all indigenous animals and birds within the sanctuary.

(2) Any person who in any sanctuary hunts or attempts to hunt any animal or bird protected within the sanctuary, or takes any trophy of any such animal or bird, or who is found within a sanctuary under circumstances which show he is there for the purpose of hunting or taking trophy of any such animal or bird therein shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that nothing in this subsection shall apply to a game ranger acting in the execution of his duties or to the holder of a special permit granted by the Minister under subsection (1) of section 16 of this Act.

(3) No person shall camp within the limits of a sanctuary unless he has first obtained a permit issued by a game ranger stating the period for which he may camp.

(4) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (3) shall be guilty of an offence.

(5) It is an offence for any person, other than a police officer acting in the course of his official duty or a game ranger acting in the course of his official duty, to carry any firearm in a sanctuary except under the supervision of the game ranger in charge of the sanctuary."
Replacement of sections 8 and 9.

5. Sections 8 and 9 of the principal Act are hereby replaced with the following:

"Prohibition of hunting and dealing in specially protected and royal game.

8. (1) No person shall hunt or attempt to hunt, or be in possession of a trophy of, any specially protected game unless he holds valid permit issued under subsection (1) of section 16, and otherwise than in accordance with the conditions set out in such permit.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than five years but not exceeding fifteen years, without the option of a fine.

(3) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of section 15 and subsections (1), (2) and (3) of section 16, any person who trades or trafficks in the raw product of any specially protected game shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to imprisonment for a period of not less than seven years but not exceeding fifteen years without the option of a fine.

(4) No person shall hunt or attempt to hunt, or be in possession of a trophy of any royal game unless he is in possession of a valid permit issued under subsection (1) of section 16, and otherwise than in accordance with the conditions set out in such permit.

(5) Any person who contravenes the provisions of this subsection (4) shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine not less than four thousand Emalangeni but not exceeding thirty thousand Emalangeni or, in default of payment, to imprisonment for a term of not less than one year but not exceeding five years:

Provided that in all cases any fine imposed shall not be less than the replacement value of the animals or birds in respect of which the offence is committed.

(6) Any person found guilty of an offence under subsection (1), (3) or (4) shall be required by the Court in addition to any penalty imposed under that subsection, to either replace that game or to compensate fully for its replacement value, failing which such person shall be liable to a further period of imprisonment of not less than two years but not exceeding six years.

(7) Any such replacement or compensation shall be made to the owner of the game or, if ownership of the game cannot be established, to the owner of the property where the game was hunted, and where the owner of such game or property cannot be determined, such replacement or compensation shall be made to the Government.
Licences to hunt game during open season.

9. (1) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of section 15, the Minister may issue a licence to any person to hunt common game during the open season provided that:—

(a) the written permission of the landowner on whose property the game is to be hunted is produced to the Minister when the application is made for the licence;
(b) the licence clearly specifies the species and number of animals to be hunted;
(c) the licence shall be carried by the licensee when hunting and every animal shot shall be recorded on the reverse thereof immediately the animal is recovered.

(2) The Minister may from time to time by Notice in the Gazette fix the fees to be paid for licences to hunt common game during the open season.”

Replacement of section 12.

6. Section 12 of the principal Act is hereby replaced with the following:

“Illegal hunting of game or possession of trophy, aiding and abetting, confiscation and disposal of arms, ammunition, etc.

12. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section any person who without valid licence or permit issued under this Act or contrary to the provisions of any Notice issued by the Minister under section 4 hunts or attempts to hunt any game or is in possession of a trophy of any game shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who uses or issues any forged or fictitious permit or licence or without lawful authority uses or issues any permit or licence for the purpose of enabling him or another person to traffick illegally in:

(a) specially protected game or any raw product thereof shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than three years but not exceeding eight years without the option of a fine; or
(b) in any trophy of any game shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of not less than two thousand Emalangeni but not exceeding four thousand Emalangeni or to imprisonment of not less than one year but not exceeding four years or to both.

(3) Any person who in any way aids, abets or solicits any person to contravene any of the provisions of this Act shall be guilty of the same offence as the offender and liable to the same punishment to which the offender convicted of such offence is liable.

(4) Any person convicted of an offence under any section of this Act shall forfeit to the Government by order of the Court any firearm, ammunition, weapon, animal, vehicle, vessel or aircraft which was in his possession at the time of the commission of the offence and any such firearm, ammunition, weapon, animal, vehicle, vessel or aircraft shall be disposed of by public auction by order of the court after proper advertisement, whether or not the convicted person is the owner of such firearm, ammunition, weapon, animal, vehicle, vessel or aircraft, unless such firearm, ammunition, weapon, animal, vehicle, vessel or aircraft is proved by its owner to have been stolen and that the theft has been reported to and duly recorded by the police.
(5) No firearm, ammunition, weapon, animal, vehicle, vessel or aircraft seized by a game ranger or any person acting under his direct authority, or by a police officer, in respect of any alleged contravention of this Act, shall be released, by the court unless the accused is acquitted."

Amendment of section 13.

7. In section 13 of the principal Act replace the word "aeroplane" wherever it occurs with the word "aircraft".

Replacement of sections 15 and 16.

8. Sections 15 and 16 of the principal Act are hereby replaced with the following:

"Privileges and rights of landowners, etc.

15. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, any person who is—

(a) the owner, lessee, or manager of any land in Swaziland; or
(b) lawfully resident on a land in a Swazi area, may at any time, except during the closed season mentioned in section 7 of this Act, hunt any common game, other than common game protected under section 4, on such land without obtaining a licence for that purpose.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act or any other law, any game farmer may, without a licence:

(a) hunt, possess, barter, sell, give, donate, or otherwise dispose of any animal or part thereof which he has legally purchased, acquired, produced or established under the controlled conditions of a game farm and the Minister shall not unreasonable withhold the issuing of a permit under subsection (2) of section 16 to such a game farmer to export or import such animal or part thereof;
(b) authorise in writing, for reward or otherwise, any person to hunt game on his game farm;
(c) authorise in writing the possession or conveyance of any trophy of any game hunted on or taken from his game farm.

Free permits.

16. (1) The Minister or an officer authorised in that behalf by him may issue without charge a permit authorizing the holder thereof:

(a) to hunt, kill or capture any game as specified in species and number on the permit, and on such conditions and for such period as the Minister may deem fit, if the permission in writing of the owner of the land in respect of which the permit is to be issued has been obtained;
(b) to import or export any trophy if it is shown that such trophy has been legally acquired.

(2) The Minister or an officer authorized in that behalf by him may issue without charge a permit to any person to possess a trophy of specially protected game or raw product thereof; provided that the source of such trophy or raw product, if in Swaziland, is authorized in writing by the person on whose land it is taken; provided further that if the source of such trophy or raw product is not in Swaziland, its possession is proved to have been legally acquired."
9. Section 19 of the principal Act is hereby replaced with the following:

"Export and import of game trophies, etc.

19. (1) Any person who exports from Swaziland or imports into Swaziland any trophy or raw product of any specially protected game without a valid permit issued by the Minister under subsection (2) of section 16, or contrary to the conditions of such permit, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than five years but not exceeding fifteen years, without the option of a fine.

(2) Any person who exports from Swaziland or imports into Swaziland any trophy of any royal game without a valid permit issued by the Minister under subsection (2) of section 16, or contrary to the conditions of any such permit, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of not less than five thousand Emalangeni but not exceeding twenty thousand Emalangeni, or to a term of imprisonment of not less than three years but not exceeding eight years, or both.

(3) Any person who exports from Swaziland or imports into Swaziland any trophy of any common game, or any trophy of any other indigenous animal or bird, without a valid permit issued by the Minister under subsection (2) of section 16 or contrary to the conditions of any such permit, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to a fine of not less than two thousand Emalangeni but not exceeding twenty thousand Emalangeni, or to a term of imprisonment of not less than two years but not exceeding five years or both."

Amendment of section 20.

10. Section 20 of the principal Act is hereby amended by replacing the words “District Commissioner” wherever it occurs with the word “Minister”.

Replacement of sections 21, 22 and 23.

11. Sections 21, 22 and 23 of the principal Act are hereby replaced with the following:

"Prohibition of trespass in pursuit of game.

21. (1) No person shall be upon any land at any time in pursuit of or in search of game, whether or not he is the holder of a licence issued under this Act, unless he has the permission in writing of the owner of such land.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) Any dog found upon land within a sanctuary may be destroyed forthwith by, or on the order of, the owner or occupier of such land and he shall not be liable to pay any compensation in respect of such destruction.

Right of search.

22. Any game ranger or a police officer who on reasonable grounds believes that there is in any house, tent, vehicle, vessel, receptacle or place—

(a) anything with respect to which an offence against this Act has been, or is suspected to have been, committed;

(b) anything that will afford evidence as to the commission of any such offence; or

(c) anything that is intended to be used for the purpose of committing any such offence, and that the delay in obtaining a search warrant would defeat the object of the search, may himself search without a warrant for any such thing mentioned in (a), (b) or (c), and seize such thing, if found, and take them before the Court to be dealt with according to law.

Appointment and powers of game rangers.

23. (1) The Minister may from time to time appoint game rangers and for good and sufficient reason may remove or dismiss any such game ranger.

(2) Any game ranger or person acting on the instructions of a game ranger shall have the power and the right:
(a) to carry and use firearms in the execution of his official duty provided such firearms are properly licensed;
(b) to use firearms in self defence or if he has reason to believe that his life, or the life of any of his colleagues, is threatened or is in danger;
(c) to arrest without a warrant any person suspected upon reasonable grounds of having contravened any of the provisions of this Act or regulations made thereunder;
(d) to use reasonable force necessary to effect the arrest of or to overpower any person who resists arrest and who is suspected on reasonable grounds of having contravened any of the provisions of this Act;
(e) to carry out searches without a warrant under section 23 of this Act.

(3) A game ranger or person acting on the instructions of a game ranger shall not be liable to prosecution in respect any act or omission done in the exercise of this powers or rights under subsection (2) of this section.

Amendment of section 24.

12. Section 24 of the principal Act is hereby amended as follows:
(i) by replacing subsection (1) with the following:

"Evidence
24. (1) Any trophy seized from any person charged with an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder shall be prima facie evidence against such person that he has hunted such game."

(ii) by inserting after subsection (4) the following new subsection:

"(5) Where a trophy is required to be produced as an exhibit in any evidence before a court it shall not be necessary to produce any more than a piece of skin, trotter, head or fur or other distinctive part of the animal sufficient to identify such animal and to determine the number of such animal to be produced before the court."

Amendment of section 25.

13. Section 25 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting before the words "the Minister" the words "Subject to the provisions of section 15(2)," and by deleting therefrom the words "game reserve or" wherever they occur.
Replacement of section 26.

14. Section 26 of the principal Act is hereby replaced with the following:

"Penalties"

26. (1) Any person who contravenes the provisions of sections 6(2) or (5), 7(1), 12(1), 13, or 20(1), (2) or (3) shall on conviction be liable to a fine of not less than six hundred Emalangeni but not exceeding two thousand Emalangeni or to imprisonment for a period of not less than six months but not exceeding two years.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of section 6(4) or 21(1) shall on conviction be liable to a fine of not less than two hundred Emalangeni but not exceeding five hundred Emalangeni or to imprisonment for a period of not less than one month but not exceeding one year.

Insertion of new sections 27, 28, 30 and 31.

15. There is hereby inserted immediately after section 26 of the principal Act the following new sections:

"Previous convictions."

27. (1) Before passing sentence on any person convicted under this Act, the court shall call upon the prosecutor for a record of previous convictions of that person, if any.

(2) Any person who has previously been convicted of an offence under this Act, other than an offence under sections 6(3) and 21(1) shall, upon a second or subsequent conviction, be sentenced to the maximum penalty prescribed in relation to the offence for which he is charged.

(3) Any person including an official who wilfully interferes with the investigation of any case or who in any way obstructs or frustrates the criminal prosecution of any case or who withholds, suppresses or destroys or causes to be withheld, suppressed or destroyed any evidence including records in connection with such case on in any way attempts to defeat the end of justice shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months and not more than twenty four months without the option of a fine.

Suspended sentences prohibited.

28. No sentence or part of any sentence imposed under any of the provisions of this Act in respect of any offence shall be suspended by the court.

Reward for informants.

29. Any person who gives any information which leads to the arrest and conviction of another person for an offence under this Act shall receive such reward as may be determined by the Minister, and where civil action has been taken against the convicted person for restitution of the value of any animal wilfully killed or injured, the informant may in addition to any reward receive such portion of the amount of restitution as the court may determine.
The Minister to appoint Advisory Committee.

30. The Minister may appoint a committee consisting of such members as he may determine to monitor the administration and enforcement of this Act and to advise him from time to time.

Application of Act.

31. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 43 bis of the Swaziland National Trust Commission Act, 1972, the provisions of this Act shall apply within the boundaries of any park, reserve, monument or relic proclaimed under the Natural Trust Commission Act, 1972 in relation to any game of the class referred to in this Act."
