THE WAGES ACT, 1964
(Act No. 16 of 1964)

THE REGULATION OF WAGES (SECURITY SERVICES INDUSTRY) ORDER, 2001
(Under Section 11)

In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 11 of the Wages Act, 1964, the Minister of Employment And Enterprise hereby makes the following Order-

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as the Regulation of Wages (Security Industry) Order, 2001 and shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st December, 2001.

Application.

2. (1) This Order shall apply to all persons employed in detective, investigative, cash in transit, patrolling and night-watching services providing protection against burglary, fire, personal injury and similar services connected with or related to the foregoing.

(2) This Order shall not apply to persons employed by:-

(a) The Government

(b) A local Authority

Interpretation.

3. In this order, unless the context otherwise requires:

“clerk” means an employee engaged on full time general clerical duties:

“group A” means an employee, other than a patrol supervisor, with three months or less continuous service:

“group B” means an employee, with more than three months’ up to twelve months’ continuous services;

“group B1” means an employee with more than twelve months’ continuous service;

“group C” means a patrol supervisor Grade 11;

“group D” means a patrol supervisor grade 1;

“casual employee” means an employee whose engagement provides for his payment at the end of each day and who is not engaged for a longer period than twenty four hours at a time.

Basic Minimum wage.

4. (1) Basic Minimum wage to be paid to an employee shall,
(i) include a ration allowance; and

(ii) be calculated at a rate specified in the First Schedule hereto.

(2) An employee, who at the commencement of this Order, received benefits greater than those specified in this Order, shall not suffer any reduction in such benefits by reason of this Order coming into operation.

Hours of work.

5. The basic working week shall consist of fifty-four hours. The first fifty-four hours shall be at normal rate, and any hour worked in excess of fifty-four shall be paid as over time in accordance with Regulation 6.

Overtime payment.

6. (1) An employee who is required to be on duty and work in excess of the hours specified in Regulation 5 shall be entitled to be paid for such overtime at the rate of one and half times the employee’s normal hourly rate of wages.

(2) Normal hourly rate shall mean the employees monthly rate of wages divided by two hundred and thirty-four hours.

Annual Leave.

7. (1) On completion of each period of twelve months’ continuous service, an employee shall be entitled to an annual leave of twelve days with full pay plus ten days with full pay in compensation for public holidays worked

(2) Where the employment of an employee is terminated after a period exceeding three months but not amounting to one year from the date of its commencement, or after a period of employment following the completion of a year in respect of which the paid annual holiday has been taken, the employer shall, on or before the date of such termination, pay to the employee a sum equal to not less than one day’s wages for each completed month of such period.

Sick Leave.

8. After three months’ continuous service with an employer, an employee shall be entitled to fourteen days sick leave with full pay and a further period of fourteen days on half pay in each period of twelve months of continuous employment, subject to the employee submitting to the employer a medical certificate covering the period of absence, signed by a Medical practitioner registered in Swaziland.

Maternity Leave.

9. (1) Every female employee, whether married or unmarried, who has been in the continuous employment of her employer for twelve months or more shall be entitled to maternity leave on full pay for a period not exceeding three weeks (18 working days) upon delivering to her employer:

   (a) A certificate issued by a Medical Practitioner or a midwife setting the expected or actual date of her confinement; or

   (b) Such other evidence in support of the entitlement to maternity leave as is reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case.
(2) Provided that no employee shall be entitled to the maternity leave provided for under sub-regulation (1) for two consecutive years.

Written Particulars to be provided.

10. An employee shall on engagement of an employee, give such employee a completed copy of the form in the Second Schedule of this Order.
