PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY
THE PHARMACY ACT
(No. 38 of 1929)

PRESCRIPTION OF FEES
(Under sections 5, 6 as read with section 15)

(Date of commencement: 12th August, 1977)

In exercise of the powers conferred on him by the abovementioned Act the Honourable the Minister for Health has been pleased to prescribe the following fees to be paid by chemists, namely —

(a) the sum of E5.00 being the annual registration fee to be paid by all chemists in terms of section 5(2) of the Act;

(b) a fee of E20.00 being the initial registration fee payable by chemists in terms of section 6.

M. N. DLAMINI

Permanent Secretary.

Mbabane
1st August, 1977.
In exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the above-mentioned Act the Honourable Deputy Prime Minister is pleased to make the following Order —

Citation.

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulations (Hotel and Catering Trades) Order, 1977.

Application (First Schedule)

2. This Order applies to persons employed as specified in column one of the First Schedule employed in the hotel and catering trades.

Basic Minimum Wage (First Schedule)

3. The employees specified in the First Schedule shall be paid a basic minimum wage not less favourable than that specified therein, which shall not be reduced by any amount for housing or accommodation.

Rations (Second Schedule)

4. An employer shall as a condition of employment supply at his own expense weekly rations to each employee in accordance with the scale specified in the Second Schedule:

Provided that with the consent of the employee and after notifying the Labour Commissioner the employer may pay in lieu of such rations a cash allowance as is announced by the Labour Commissioner from time to time.

Hours of work.

5. The normal working week shall consist of fifty-four working hours, which include six hours for meal breaks, spread over a period of six days.

Overtime.

6. (1) Overtime for all employees, other than those employed on a casual basis, shall be payable for time worked in excess of fifty-four hours in the normal week at one and one-half times the normal hourly rate.

(2) For the purpose of calculating payment for overtime in accordance with sub-paragraph (1), the normal hourly rate shall be deemed to be not less than one two-hundred-and-thirty fourth of the employee's basic monthly wage.
Annual leave.

7. After twelve months' continuous service with an employer, an employee shall be entitled to fourteen days' paid leave, which shall exclude any statutory public holidays that occur during the said leave period:

Provided that sick leave taken by an employee in terms of regulation 8 of this Order shall not be construed as a break in continuity of service for the purpose of entitlement to paid annual leave with full pay:

Provided further that after two years continuous service with an employer an employee shall be entitled to twenty one days annual leave with full pay.

Sick leave.

8. After twelve consecutive months’ service with an employer, an employee shall be entitled to sick leave up to a maximum of fourteen days with full pay, and thereafter, to sick leave up to a maximum of fourteen days with half pay, in each period of twelve months' continuous service subject to the employee producing a certificate of incapacity covering the period claimed as sick leave, signed by a medical practitioner duly registered as such under the Medical and Dental Practitioner's Act No. 3 of 1970:

Provided that an employee shall not be eligible for such leave in respect of any incapacity due to gross neglect on his own part:

Provided further that a female employee who produces a certificate signed by a duly registered medical practitioner recommending her absence from work for reasons of pregnancy shall be entitled to sick leave as set out in this regulation.

Public Holidays (Third Schedule)

9. An employee required to work on a public holiday specified in the Third Schedule shall be granted a day's leave with full pay in lieu thereof at a time suitable to his employer.

Weekly rest days.

10. An employee shall be entitled to one rest day with full pay in every period of seven days:

Provided that, with the agreement of his employer, he may accumulate two days to be taken in a period of fourteen days:

Provided further that when an employee works on a rest day in order to accumulate it as provided in this regulation, he shall not be entitled to overtime payment in respect of that day except for any part of it that may exceed nine hours of work.

Casual work (First Schedule)

11. An employee on a casual basis shall be paid for each hour worked not less than one two hundredth of his basic monthly wage as specified in the First Schedule.

Artisans.

12. (1) All apprenticeship agreements shall be in a form approved by the Controller of Apprenticeships and shall make mandatory an examination at the end of the period of apprenticeship.
(2) If a candidate has failed an examination once he shall arrange with his employer for the second attempt and shall bear the expenses of this attempt.

(3) An employee who qualified to attend a trade testing course at the Hotel and Catering School, may attend one such course when accepted by the College. During the period of the course the employee shall be entitled to leave of absence from his employment on full pay:

Provided that such employee has presented himself for all examinations of the College and subjected himself to the rules and regulations of the College.

(4) An employee who wishes to attend a second course at the College, because of the examination results at his initial course, shall be himself responsible for his time and expenses at such a course.

(5) An employer shall send an employee who qualifies to go for a training course, at the Hotel and Catering School, to such course during a period which is reasonably convenient to both employer and employee:

Provided that such employee shall be sent for such course not later than one year after having qualified for such course.

(6) Persons who have undergone examinations in their respective departments shall get a rise in basic pay according to their pass marks:

- A pass (80 — 100%) — 20% increase
- B pass (70 — 79%) — 12½% increase
- C pass (60 — 69%) — 7½% increase

(7) An employee who has successfully completed a trade training course at the Hotel and Catering College shall, after twelve months' service with the same employer, or before the elapse of twelve months if he has been discharged through no fault of his own, be paid by his employer the costs incurred by him in attending the said course.

(8) Where an employee, after having attended a course at the Hotel and Catering School and has been paid wages during twelve months preceding, terminates his service with his employer or absconds, he shall be liable to refund the wages paid to him during that period:

Provided that the future employer shall also be liable for repayment of such wages.

(9) An assistant cook, who has passed an approved examination and who has worked for two years in the same establishment shall be promoted to the position of cook at the termination of this period, and be paid the wages of a cook.

Tradesmen.

13. Tradesmen employed in the hotel and catering industry in their trade shall be paid not less than the minimum specified for the particular work that they are doing as classified in the relevant wages regulation Order pertaining to that particular trade:

Provided that tradesmen shall be subject to all other conditions of service in the hotel and catering trades.
Travel Arrangements.

14. If sufficient accommodation is not provided, employees who start work before 7.00 a.m. and are released by their employers from work after 5.30 p.m. shall be transported free of charge to and from work and to and from a place agreed upon between the employers and the employees:

Provided that such a place is within a radius of ten miles from the employees' place of work and accessible by road:

Provided further that should an employer provide neither accommodation nor transport he shall pay to the employee a fare sufficient for public transport to and from work and to and from a place agreed upon between the employer and the employee.

Registration.

15. Every employer shall keep a registration form containing every employee's particulars, and the nature of the form shall be as specified in the Fourth Schedule.

Uniforms.

16. (1) Uniforms shall be provided by the employer to all employees handling foodstuffs or drink or in direct contact with guests, but such uniform shall remain the property of the employer.

(2) Employees shall be entitled to wear the supplied uniforms only during working hours, unless permitted otherwise by the employer.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, estate workers shall be provided with protective clothing for the preservation of bodily health.

Inclement weather (Field Workers only)

17. An employee who presents himself for work at the correct time but is prevented from working by inclement weather shall receive full basic pay for the first day of such interruption and half basic pay for the second and third days.

Repeal.

18. Legal Notice No. 70 of 1975 is hereby repealed.

A. R. SHABANGU

Permanent Secretary.

acting as messenger;

"clerk A2" means a clerical worker capable of performing all the functions of a clerk A1 and writing, copying, simple filing and operating simple office machines, for example, entering petty cash payments and receipts transcribing information into registers and on to forms and cards without analysis, also sorting mail, photostating and duplicating;

"clerk B1" means a clerical worker capable of analysing, accounting, operating office machines, scrutinising and utilizing information not directly available but based on past experience, interviewing according to prescribed procedure, inducting according to prescribed procedure, interpreting and supervising the works of clerks A1 and A2;

"driver of a light vehicle" means an employee entrusted with the driving of transport vehicles of a carrying capacity not in excess of five tons;

"handyman (general)" means a worker without trade qualifications, who undertakes tasks as rough glazing, painting and similar uncomplicated work, requiring skill below the artisan standard;

"mechanic B1" means a person without trade qualifications, who does simple mechanical work on rock drills and locos and who can undertake basic vehicle service and attend to pumps;
“supervisor” means a person who oversees the work of gangs working in gardens, slimes, dams, lamp rooms, screening plants, washing plants, siding mills, forests and stones and on aerial ropeways, conveyors, tipplers and on construction work and painting;

“artisan Grade 2” means a tradesman without a certificate of competence or other trade qualifications.

Application.

3. This Order shall apply to all persons other than articled apprentices employed in any undertaking or any part of an undertaking which carries on for gain one or more of the following activities:

   (a) Mining and quarrying operations,

   (b) Winning of sand and general gravel from whatsoever source, or

   (c) All auxiliary work connected with the running of a mineral extraction operation.

Provided that it shall not apply to any individual employed in terms hereof who is in receipt of a basic remuneration aggregating £400.00 or more per month in cash, and who has authority to give orders to those for whose work he is responsible and, in the interest of the employer, to recommend transfer, suspension, discipline, discharge or promotion of the workers under his control or to adjust or make recommendation in connection with their grievances.

Hours of work.

4. The basic working week shall be a maximum of six days and shall consists of:

   (a) 72 hours in the case of watchmen or security guards and

   (b) 48 hours in all other cases affected by this order.

Provided that where shifts are maintained the working week shall be divided into not more than:

   (i) six shifts of a maximum of 12 hours each or

   (ii) six shifts of a maximum of 8 hours each, as the case may be.

Work Stoppage.

5. In the event of permanent or temporary stoppage of an employer’s operation whether partial or complete, occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of the employer or of the employee, but excluding stoppages occasioned by strikes lockouts, go-slow, sit-ins or other form of labour action, or dispute, whether concerted or individual, an employee who is present, available, capable and willing to work for the normal period during normal working hours, at times appointed by the employer, shall be entitled to be paid for a minimum of forty-eight hours work in any week at the full rate applicable to the job.

Provided that he shall perform any task appointed by the employer and that such task shall not expose or subject him to peculiar risks or substantially more arduous conditions than pertained to his original or normal form of employment and that the provision of such alternative work shall in no way prejudice the employer's right to terminate the employee's contract of service in terms of his normal condition of employment and in accordance with the law.

Provided further that where the employer cannot appoint a productive task and the employee is present, available, capable and willing as aforesaid, he shall pay to the employee, full daily wages for two days immediately succeeding the day upon which work was stopped as aforesaid and thereafter the employee shall be paid at half his daily rate until work is resumed or his employment is lawfully terminated.

Static and worsening Conditions.

6. (1) The rates of pay and other conditions of employment set forth in this order are the least or minimum permitted by the Government of Swaziland and shall not be represented as otherwise and no part of this order shall be construed or quoted as justifying or denying advancement to, or freezing the wages of any employee.

(2) No employer affected by this order shall, in any way, reduce his rates of remuneration or other conditions of service from those which were applicable to his employee at the effective date of this order, except where the nature of the work has been changed.

Categories of work.

7. The employees affected by this order shall be graded into categories A1, A2, B1, B2, B3 and C1 which said categories are defined and described in the Schedule hereto.

Basic Minimum Wage.

8. The basic minimum wages for the various categories set forth in regulation 7 hereof shall be in respect of a shift of eight hours, except in the case of watchmen, when the shift shall be 12 hours and shall be as set out in the table hereunder and shall apply for a period of twelve calendar months from the date upon which the order shall become effective.

Overtime.

9. Overtime shall be paid to daily rated workers only at the following rates:

(a) for time in excess of 15 minutes after the basic hours per shift as specified in regulation 4, at one and one half times the basic rate reduced to an hourly rate, save a provided in sub-regulation (b).
(b) for time worked on Sundays, where Sunday is not a working day, or on an employee’s rest day when Sunday is a normal working day, or on a holiday specified in regulation 10, at double the basic wage reduced to an hourly rate.

Public Holiday.

10. The following public holidays shall be observed and the employees shall be entitled to full basic pay in respect thereof:

- CHRISTMAS DAY
- BOXING DAY
- GOOD FRIDAY
- EASTER MONDAY
- SOMHLOLO NATIONAL DAY
- INCWALALA DAY
- KING’S BIRTHDAY

Provided that in respect of any two of the said holidays, to maintain production, the employee shall work extra shifts at basic rates, if so required upon two days to be appointed by the employer.

Annual Leave.

11. On completion of each period of twelve calendar months of continuous service with an employer, an employee shall be entitled to annual leave of not less than fifteen working days with full pay;

Provided that should one or more of the said fifteen days be a public holiday the employee shall not be entitled to more than fifteen days annual leave, but shall be paid at double the basic rate in respect of each public holiday.

Sick Leave.

12. If an employee becomes ill through no fault of his own and is incapable of performing his duties, he shall on production of a certificate issued by a medical practitioner registered under the Medical and Dental Practitioners’ Act No. 3 of 1970, be entitled, after six calendar months continuous service with his employer to one or other of the undermentioned sick benefits:

(a) fourteen days leave with full pay and thereafter fourteen days with half pay.

(b) thirty days leave whereof the three days in any period of sickness shall be without pay and the remainder with pay.

(c) thirty days of tree hospitalisation and medical treatment with free food whilst in hospital and a daily sum of money equivalent to the cash value of an employee’s rations as specified by the Labour Commissioner in terms of Section 98(1) of the Employment Act No. 51 of 1962.
Maternity Leave.

13. If a woman employee becomes pregnant she shall be entitled to a total of thirty days leave in each period of twelve calendar months continuous service on full basic pay, in respect of prenatal care, confinement at the option of the employer, to free medical treatment and all medicine prescribed by the physician in charge and a period of three weeks after delivery to recover, without any payment of wages.

Rations.

14. (1) The minimum rates of pay shall be deemed to include a ration element and the value and quality of such ration element shall be determined by the Labour Commissioner from time to time. It shall not be incumbent on any employer to provide actual rations in lieu of cash but shall be entitled at all times to do so provided that he shall have procured the prior consent of the Labour Commissioner.

(2) Upon notice issued by the Labour Commissioner, specifying an increase in the ration allowance such increase shall be added to the basic minimum wage not later than the pay-day following the date of such notice.

Redundancy Payment.

15. In the case of redundancy an employee shall be paid a minimum of three months wages, plus one month’s wages in lieu of notice, immediately at the time of retrenchment regardless of the length of service.

Pay Advances.

16. Any employee affected by this order shall be entitled on a day to be appointed by his employer, which shall be approximately half-way through the pay month, to draw an advance of his wages to an amount of E20.00 if his basic wage does not exceed E100.00 per month or E40.00 where his basic wages exceeds E100.00 per month.

Provided:

(a) that there shall be funds available to such employee to meet the amount of the required advances;

(b) his acceptance of such advance is deemed to be an authorisation to the employer to deduct from the employee’s monthly salary the full amount advanced to him at the end of the pay month.

Repeal.

17. Legal Notice No. 76 of 1975 is hereby repealed.
