Basic Minimum Wage.

4. The basic minimum wage to be paid to the employee specified in the First Schedule shall:

(i) be calculated at a rate not less than that specified in the said Schedule;

(ii) be deemed to include the ration element;

(iii) not be reduced by any amount for housing or accommodation which may be provided by the employer:

Provided that an employee who at the date of commencement of this Order is in receipt of a higher wage for his particular occupation than the wage prescribed by this Order shall not by reason of this Order suffer reduction in such wage.
Hours of Work.

5. (1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) the normal hours of work for employees shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 7, consist of forty-eight hours per week divided into eight and one half per day excluding a rest period of one hour on Mondays to Fridays inclusive.

(2) The normal hours of work for petrol pump attendants shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 7, be forty-eight hours of work spread over a period of one week.

(3) The normal hours of work for a watchman shall be seventy-two hours divided into six shifts, each of twelve hours.

Public Holidays.

6. Public Holidays shall mean the days specified in the Second Schedule and shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 7, be holidays with full pay.

Overtime.

7. (1) An employee, other than a petrol pump attendant and a watchman, who is required to be on duty and work in excess of the hours specified in paragraph 5 shall be paid at one and half times the basic hourly rate:

Provided that overtime worked on Sundays or public holidays or after 1.00 p.m. on Saturdays shall be paid for at twice the employee’s basic hourly rate.

(2) Overtime shall be paid to petrol pump attendants as follows:

(i) for all time worked in excess of the normal hours of work (other than on a public holiday) at one and one half times the employee’s basic hourly rate;

(ii) for all time worked in excess of the normal hours of work on a public holidays at twice the employee’s basic hourly rate.

(3) For the purpose of calculating the employee’s basic hourly rate the employee’s monthly basic rate shall be divided by two hundred and eight.

Annual Leave.

8. (1) After twelve consecutive month’s service with an employer an employee shall be entitled to twelve working days leave on full pay:

Provided that on completion of three years continuous service with an employer an employee shall be entitled to fifteen working days leave on full pay.

(2) Where employment is terminated after three month’s initial service with an employer, or after returning from annual leave as provided for in sub-paragraph (1) an employee shall be entitled to one day’s pay for each completed month of service following his initial engagement or following his return from leave as the case may be.

Sick Leave.

9. (1) After three consecutive month’s service with an employer, an employee shall be entitled to sick leave up to a maximum of twenty-one days with full pay, and thereafter to sick leave up to a maximum of seven days with half pay in each period of twelve month’s continuous service, subject to him producing a certificate of incapacity covering the period claimed as sick leave and signed by a medical practitioner.

(2) An employee shall not be eligible for sick leave in respect of any incapacity due to his own neglect or misconduct.
(3) Sick leave taken by an employee in terms of this paragraph shall not be construed as a break in service for purposes of determining his entitlement to annual leave.

(4) An employee, who produces a certificate signed by a medical practitioner recommending her absence from work for reason of pregnancy, shall be entitled to sick leave as set out in this paragraph:

Provided that the entitlement to leave on half pay shall be increased to twenty-one days in such case.
