LEGAL NOTICE NO. 99 OF 1987

THE JUDICIAL SERVICE COMMISSION ACT, 1982
(Act No. 13 of 1982)

APPOINTMENT OF PRINCIPAL MAGISTRATE
(Under section 5)

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Judicial Service Commission Act, 1982 the Judicial Service Commission hereby appoints—

REUBEN DILI ZONDI

to be Principal Magistrate with effect from the 14th October, 1987.

A.V. MAMBA
Principal Secretary

MBABANE,
In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Judicial Service Commission Act, 1982 the Judicial Service Commission hereby appoints—

NICOLAAS JACOBUS VAN LOGGERENBERG

to be Principal Magistrate with effect from the 17th September, 1987.

A.V. MAMBA
Principal Secretary

MBABANE,
In exercise of the powers conferred by section 11 of the Wages Act, 1964 the Minister for Labour hereby makes the following Order—

Citation and Commencement.
1. This order may be cited as the Regulation of Wages (Mining and Quarrying Industries) Order, 1987 and shall come into force on 30th October, 1987.

Interpretation.
2. In this order unless the context otherwise requires—

   “Clerk A1” means a clerical worker capable of simple reading, minimal writing, collecting and carrying items, for example, date stamps, keeping calendars up to date, recording times of arrival and departure, receiving and carrying documents and correspondence internally and acting as a messenger;

   “Clerk A2” means a clerical worker capable of performing all the functions of a clerk A1 and writing, copying, simple filling and operating simple office machines, for example, entering petty cash payments and receipts, transcribing information into registers and on to forms and cards without analysis, also sorting mail, photocopying and duplicating;

   “Clerk B1” means a clerical worker capable of analysing, accounting, operating office machines, scrutinising and utilising information not directly available but based on past experience, interviewing according to prescribed procedure, interpreting supervising the work of clerks A1 and A2;

   “Supervisor” means a person who oversees the work of gangs working in gardens, slimes, dams, lamp rooms, screening plants, siding mills, forests stores, aerial ropeways, conveyors, tipplers, construction work and painting;

   “Unqualified Tradesman” means a person who undertakes such tasks as rough glazing, painting and simple mechanical work on rock drills, locos, pumps, dimple vehicle servicing and similar uncomplicated work requiring skill below the artisan’s standard;

   “DRIVERS GRADE 1” means Drivers of:

   (a) Ambulances;
   (b) Heavy duty vehicles (in excess of five tons capacity);
   (c) Power-driven earth moving equipment; and
   (d) Primary hoists.
DRIVERS GRADE 2" means Drivers of:

(a) Light duty vehicles other than ambulances;
(b) Secondary hoists;
(c) Rocker arm loaders;
(d) Tractor; and
(e) Locomotives.

Application.

3. (1) This order shall apply to all persons other than articled apprentices employed in any undertaking or any part of an undertaking which carries on one or more of the following activities for gain—

(a) Mining and quarrying operations;
(b) Winning of sand and gravel from any source; or
(c) Ancilliary work connected with the running of a mineral extraction operation.

(2) Not withstanding subsection (1) this order shall not apply to an employee who is in receipt of a basic remuneration aggregating $600.00 or more per month and who has authority to—

(a) Give orders to employees under his control
(b) Recommend transfer, suspend, discipline, discharge or promote workers under his control; and
(c) Adjudge and make recommendations in connection with grievances of employees under his control.

Hours of work.

4. (1) The basic working week shall be a maximum of six days.

(2) Not withstanding subsection (1) where shifts are maintained.

The basic working week shall—

(a) Consist of six twelve-hour shifts in the case of a Security guard; and
(b) six eight-hour shifts in all other cases.

Except That—

(i) with the consent of his employer, an employee may, extend his daily hours of work by up to one hour in order to reduce the hours of his last shift for his own convenience without the entitlement to overtime payment.

(ii) Subject to Section 10(2) where an employer requires an employee to work in excess of the hours specified in this section, an employee shall be paid for overtime in accordance with the provisions of Section 9.

Work Stoppage.

5. (1) In the event of a temporary stoppage of any employer's operations whether partial or complete, occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of the employer or of the employee, but excluding stoppage occasioned by a strike, lockout, sit-in or other form of labour action or dispute, whether concerted or individual an employee who is present, available, capable and willing to work for the normal period during normal working hours at times appointed by the employer, shall be paid at the full rate applicable to the job—
(a) In the case of watchman or security guard, for a minimum of 72 hours in any week; and
(b) In the case of all other employees for a minimum of 48 hours in any week.

Provided That—

(i) An employee shall perform any task appointed by the employer;
(ii) Such task shall not expose or subject an employee to peculiar risks or substantially more arduous conditions than those pertaining to his original or normal form of employment; and
(iii) The provisions of such alternative work shall not prejudice the employer's right to terminate the employee's contract of service in terms of his normal conditions of employment and in accordance with the law.

(2) Where the employer cannot appoint a productive task and the employee is present, available, capable and willing to work, the employer shall pay the employee full daily wages for two days immediately succeeding the day upon which work was stopped and thereafter pay the employee half his daily rate until work is resumed or his employment is lawfully terminated.

Static and worsening conditions.

6. (1) The rate of pay and other conditions of employment set forth in this order are the least or minimum permitted by the Government of Swaziland and shall not be represented as otherwise and no part of this order shall be construed as justifying non advancement or denying advancement to, or freezing the wages of an employee.

(2) No employer affected by this order shall reduce his rates of remuneration or other conditions of service from those which were applicable to his employee at the effective date of this order, except where the nature of work has been changed.

Categories of work.

7. Employees affected by this order shall be graded into categories. A1, A2, B1, B2, B3, C1, and C2 as set out in the schedule hereto.

Basic minimum wage.

8. (1) The basic minimum wage for the various categories set forth in Section 7 shall be in respect of a shift of eight hours except in the case of watchmen, where the shift shall be twelve hour and shall be as set out in the table hereunder.

(2) The basic minimum wage per shift for the categories of employee graded in accordance with Section 7 and the schedule hereto shall be as follows—

- Thirty days leave of which the first three days in any period of sickness shall be without pay and the remainder with pay; or
- Thirty days of free hospitalization and medical treatment with free food whilst in hospital and a daily sum of money equivalent to the cash value of any employee's rations as may be approved by the Labour Commissioner from time to time.

Maternity Leave.

13. Pregnancy shall entitle an employee to—

- A total of thirty days leave, on full pay in each period of twelve months' continuous service with the same employer in respect of prenatal, confinement and postnatal care; or
(b) Alternatively, at the option of the employer and in lieu of payment referred to in paragraph (a)—

(i) Free pre-natal medical care;

(ii) Confinement in hospital with free food, free medical treatment including all medicines prescribed by the medical practitioner in charge of her; and

(iii) Three weeks unpaid leave following delivery.

Redundancy.

14. (1) In the case of redundancy by reason of closure, cassation or curtailment of an employer's operation each affected employee shall receive—

(a) One month's notice of termination of service or one month's pay in lieu of such notice;

(b) (i) One month's wage at his latest basic minimum rate where he has been in the employer's continuous service up to 6 months;

(ii) Two months, wages as provided in paragraph (b)(i) where he has been in the employer's continuous service for more than 6 months but less than 12 months; or

(iii) Three month's wages as provided in paragraph (b)(i) where he has been in the employer's continuous service for 12 months or more.

(2) The benefits provided in this Section shall be a minimum but shall be deemed to be included in any terminal benefits provided by any written law.

Pay advances.

15. On a day to be appointed by his employer, which day shall be approximately half way through the pay month, an employee whose basic wages exceeds E100.00 per month shall be entitled to draw an advance of his wages to an amount of E20.00:

Provided that—

(a) There are funds standing to the credit of the employee to meet the amount of the required advance; and

(b) His acceptance of the advance shall be deemed to be an authorisation to the employer to deduct the full amount advanced to him at the end of the pay month from his salary.

Revocation of Legal Notice No. 56 of 1986.

16. The Regulation of Wages (Mining and Quarrying Industry) Order, 1986 is hereby revoked.
