Application.

3. (1) This order shall apply to all persons, other than articled apprentices, employed in any undertaking or any part of an undertaking which carries on one or more of the following activities for gain—
(a) Mining and Quarrying operations;
(b) Winning of sand and gravel from any source; or
(c) Ancillary work connected with the running of a mineral extraction operation.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) this order shall not apply to an employee who is in receipt of a basic remuneration aggregating E600.00 or more per month and who has authority to—
(a) Give orders to employees under his control;
(b) Recommend transfer, suspend discipline, discharge or promote workers under his control; and
(c) Adjudge and make recommendations in connection with grievances of employees under his control.

Hours of work.

4. (1) The basic working week shall be a maximum of six days.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) where shifts are maintained.
The basic working week shall—
(a) Consist of six-twelve hour shifts in the case of a Security guard; and
(b) Six eight-hour shifts in all other cases.

Except That—
(i) with the consent of his employer, an employee may extend his daily hours of work by up to one hour in order to reduce the hours of his last shift for his own convenience without the entitlement to overtime payment.
(ii) Subject to section 10(2) where an employer requires an employee to work in excess of the hours specified in this section, an employee shall be paid for overtime in accordance with the provision of Section 9.

Work Stoppage.

5. (1) In the even of a temporary of any employer's operations whether partial or complete, occasioned by circumstances beyond the control of the employer or of the employee, but excluding stoppage occasioned by a strike, lockout, sit-in or other form of labour action or dispute, concerted or individual; an employee who is present available, capable and willing to work for the normal period during normal working hours at times appointed by the employer, shall be paid at the full rate applicable to the job—
(a) In the case of watchman or security guard, for a minimum of 72 hours in any week; and
(b) In the case of all employees for a minimum of 48 hours in any week.

Provided that:

(i) An employee shall perform any task appointed by the employer;
(ii) Such task shall not expose or subject an employee to peculiar risk or substantially more arduous conditions than those pertaining to his original or normal form of employment; and
(iii) The provision of such alternative work shall not prejudice the employer’s right to terminate the employee’s contract of service in terms of his normal conditions of employment and in accordance with the law.

(2) Where the employer cannot appoint a productive task and the employee is present, available, capable and willing to work, the employer shall pay the employee full daily wages for two days immediately succeeding the day upon which work was stopped and thereafter pay the employee half his daily rate until work is resumed or his employment is lawfully terminated.

Static and worsening conditions.

6. (1) The rates of pay and other conditions of employment set forth in this order are the least or minimum permitted by the Government of Swaziland and shall not be represented as otherwise and not part of this order shall be construed as justifying non-advance ment or denying advancement to, or freezing the wages of an employee.

(2) No employer affected by this order shall reduce his rates of remuneration or other conditions of service from those which were applicable to his employee at the effective date of this order, except where the nature of work has been changed.

Categories of work.

7. Employees affected by this order shall be graded into categories. A1, A2, B1, B2, B3, C1, and C2 as set out in the schedule hereto.

Basic minimum wage.

8. (1) The basic minimum wage for the various categories set forth in section 7 shall be in respect of a shift of eight hours except in the case of watchman, where the shift shall be twelve hours and shall be as set out in the table hereunder.

(2) The basic minimum wage per shift for the categories of employees graded in accordance with section 7 and the schedule hereto shall be as follows.

(c) Thirty days of free hospitalization and medical treatment with free food whilst in hospital and a daily sum of money equivalent to the cash value of any employee's rations as may be approved by the Labour Commissioner from time to time.

Maternity Leave.

13. Pregnancy shall entitled an employee to—

(a) A total of thirty days leave, on full pay in each period of twelve months' continuous service with the same employer in respect of prenatal, confinement and postnatal care or;
(b) Alternatively, at the option of the employer and in lieu of payment referred to in paragraph (a)–

(i) Free pre-natal medical care;

(ii) Confinement in hospital with free food, free medical treatment including all medicines prescribed by the Medical Practitioner in charge of her; and

(iii) Three weeks unpaid leave following delivery.

Redundancy.

14. (1) In the case of redundancy by reason of closure, cessation or curtailment of an employer's operation each affected employee shall receive—

(a) One month's notice of termination of service or one month's pay in lieu of such notice;

(b)(i) One month's wages at his latest basic minimum rate where he has been in the employer's continuous service up to 6 months.

(ii) Two months' wages as provided in paragraph (b)(i) where he has been in the employer's continuous service for more than 6 months but less than 12 months; or

(iii) Three months' wages as provided in paragraph (b)(i) where he has been in the employer's continuous service for 12 months or more.

(2) The benefits provided in this section shall be a minimum but shall be deemed to be included in any terminal benefits provided by any written law.

Pay advances.

15. On a day to be appointed by his employer, which day shall be approximately half way through the pay month, an employee whose basic wage exceeds £100.00 per month shall be entitled to draw an advance of his wages to an amount of £40.00:

Provided that—

(a) There are funds standing to the credit of the employee to meet the amount of the required advance; and

(b) His acceptance of the advance shall be deemed to be an authorization to the employer to deduct the full amount advanced to him at the end of the pay month from his salary.

16. The Regulation of Wages (Mining and Quarrying Industry) Order, 1988 is hereby revoked.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 15 of the National Fire and Emergency Service Order, 1975 the Minister of Interior hereby makes these Regulations.

Citation.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Water Supply and Fire Hydrant (Amendment) Regulations, 1989.

Amendment of Legal Notice No. 92 of 1982.

2. The Water Supply and Fire Hydrant Regulations, 1982 are hereby amended as follows:

(a) by replacing the words and figure “One hundred Emalangeni (E100.00)” appearing in Section 10 thereof with the words and figure “Five hundred Emalangeni (E500.00)”

(b) by replacing Schedules I and II thereto with the following new Schedules:

SCHEDULE I

FIRE-RISK CATEGORIES OF FIRE AREA

(a) High Risk Areas: Areas in which the risks of fire and of the spread of fire are high and includes congested areas of factories, extensive shipping centres, warehouses, and other commercial buildings, dock warehouses, timber yards, timbered buildings and buildings in which hazardous processes are carried out or hazardous materials are stored and large plantations, Congested general residential areas where buildings are four storeys and more in height.

(b) Moderate-risk areas: Areas in which factory, commercial, and residential buildings are, in general, detached and less than four storeys in height, and where, because of their detachment and because the materials processed or stored are not considered highly hazardous, the risk of fire and the spread of fire are not as high as those in high-areas.

(c) Low-risk areas: Areas which are suburban or semi-rural in character in which detached or semi detached dwelling houses predominate. This category is subdivided into four groups as follows:

1. Low-risk – group 1.

Residential areas where the gross floor area of the dwelling house including outbuildings is generally likely to be more than 300 sq.m.
(2) Low-risk — group 2.
Residential area where the gross floor area of the dwelling house including outbuildings is generally likely to vary between 100 sq. m. and 300 sq. m.

(3) Low-risk — group 3.
Residential areas where the gross floor area of the dwelling house including outbuildings is generally likely to be less than 100 sq. m. but more than 55 sq. m.

(4) Low-risk — group 4.
Residential areas where the gross floor area of the dwelling house including outbuildings are not more than 55 sq. m. This group includes most low-cost housing schemes and squatter areas.
